EDITORIAL

Entering student life, or moving to a new city to continue your studies, requires a series of important steps. Once you have chosen where to study, finding suitable accommodation is often the first of them.

To simplify this often complex process, you will find here the latest version of our housing guide which outlines the steps to take, the financial aid that is available and a directory of student residences, in Toulouse and in the other local student towns.

It also contains tips for each step of the process (finding accommodation, moving in, moving out, ...) and some useful contacts for temporary housing, shared housing, intergenerational housesharing, etc. This year we are delighted to announce the opening of a new complex of 382 appartements for international visitors, ideally situated in central Toulouse.

For more advice and answers to your specific questions, you can also come speak to us at the Welcome Desk, 41 allées Jules Guesde in Toulouse, along with our key partners and, in particular, the local Welfare and Benefits Office (CAF). If you can't come to us, please visit our website at welcomedesk.univ-toulouse.fr, where you will find plenty of useful information.

We wish you the best of luck with your housing search and your studies in Toulouse!

Student accommodation

Be prepared for your housing search!

The ideal time to find accommodation is from early July (Bac results) to mid-August

It becomes more difficult at the beginning of the academic year as housing options are more scarce. If you can afford it, we recommend booking accommodation and paying rent for a few extra weeks, even if it is not occupied.

Compiling a housing application

Here is a list of the documents that are usually requested:

- a photocopy of your proof of identity (identity card, passport or residence permit)
- your student card or schooling certificate
- proof of address
- your bank account details
- your employment contract or your most recent pay slips, if applicable.

The list of documents that your physical guarantor will have to provide (or a guarantee certificate if your guarantor is an organization) cf. p14:

- three most recent pay slips plus employer statement
- proof of address
- proof of identity
- latest tax declaration.

Calculating your budget for the 1st month and the rest of the year

It is essential to know your budget and any other expenses to be paid each month in advance so you can choose accommodation within your means. Also, set aside enough money for temporary accommodation when you arrive and the compulsory upfront student accommodation fees.

In the 1st month, you will have to pay the 1st month's rent + the security deposit (one month of rent excluding utilities and service charges) + agency / application fees + furniture if the accommodation is unfurnished.

The rest of the year

electricity / gas and internet bills (except in some student residences), and any other expenses that are not related to housing: studies, transport, food costs, recreation, etc. See the budget table on p10

Various tips

Housing location: don't underestimate the time it will take to get from your home to where you study.

Watch out for scams and listings that seem too good to be true (rent that is too cheap for the area, perfect photos, etc.)

When viewing accommodation, have your application ready and with you to save valuable time!

Never pay in cash and don't hand over any money for rent or a security deposit before signing the rental agreement. Also, never send money by postal or money order or similar methods (e.g. Western Union).

Never accept the services of a person offering to sell you a "list of properties" in exchange for money, but with no guarantee of finding accommodation.

Warning! A room of less than 9m² does not qualify for housing benefits provided by the Caf!

What help is available?

Housing benefits provided by the Caf

This is provided monthly and is for French and international students. It is paid at the beginning of each month for the previous month (e.g. for the month of January it is paid in February). The first month spent in the accommodation does not qualify for housing benefits.

> Please note:

- remember to notify the Caf in June if you are keeping your accommodation in July and August, otherwise your benefits will automatically be suspended,
- if you are under 21 and your parents receive child benefits, these will also be suspended if you apply for housing benefits. Think about it together!
- Visit www.caf.fr to do a simulation of how much you are entitled to in benefits.

Apply online!

For all applications, have your bank account details and your rental agreement at the ready, which should include your landlord's contact information, and how much you pay in rent, utilities and service charges.

Supporting documents to be provided:

For European students:

- Proof of identity
- European Health Insurance Card
- Schooling certificate
- Birth certificate.

For non-European students:

Types of accommodation

Private accommodation

This type of accommodation belongs to a private landlord who rents it out either directly or through an estate agency. It can be furnished or unfurnished.

It is perfectly possible to co-rent private accommodation with another tenant, provided the landlord agrees.

Rental prices depend on the surface area and location of the accommodation, but remember that students are entitled to housing benefits. The average rent for a studio apartment in the city center is 550 euros in the Toulouse metropolitan area.

Accommodation in a Crous residence

French students with Crous grants based on household income are given priority.

To submit your request, put together your Student Welfare Application (“Dossier Social Étudiant”) between 12 April and 31 May of the previous year. Be careful, do not leave it until the last minute!

International students on an exchange programme can contact their host institution’s International Relations department for more information.

Social housing for students

Social housing (also known as «Hlm» in French) refers to housing units managed by social landlords (such as Promologis, Le Groupe des Chalets / Oh Mon Appart, Toulouse Métropole Habitat, etc.). A social housing unit can be a bedroom, a studio, a one-bedroom apartment (T2), etc., located in a student residence or a mixed-use residence, either as an individual unit or as a shared accommodation. Any student can apply for social housing by visiting www.demandelogement31.fr. Alternatively, this request can also be made directly at a registration office. The list of registration offices and additional information can be found here: <https://metropole.toulouse.fr/demarches/faire-une-demande-de-logement-social>

Once the application is submitted, the candidate's file is reviewed by a committee responsible for allocating the housing.

A private room

This is a bedroom rented out in an individual's home. The kitchen and bathroom are shared with them and their family. Some may also offer a shared living space, and possibly breakfast and an evening meal.

Please note:

the rental agreement must specify the services provided.

The advantage?

the rent is often cheaper, and you will be eligible for housing benefits provided by the Caf.

Intergenerational housesharing

This consists of a student living with a senior citizen who has a spare room in their home. This type of housing is advantageous for both the student who, in return for various services, pays low or sometimes even no rent, and the senior citizen who gets to have some company and avoid living in isolation.

For more information on intergenerational housesharing, visit www.cohabilis.org

Please note: There are also private student residences, otherwise known as “service residences”, that are not listed in this guide. They can be found at <https://www.adele.org>

Habitat Jeunes residences provided by the Regional Union for Youth Habitat (URHAJ):

These are available to young people aged 16 to 30 who are employed, apprentices, students, trainees or job seekers on benefits. Several types of furnished accommodation are available (studio, one-bedroom flats, etc.) and they can be individual or shared. In Habitat Jeunes residences, various guidance, workshops and activities are available to residents.

www.habitatjeunesoccitanie.org

Please note : Some Habitat Jeunes residences can also provide short-term accommodation until you find a permanent home.

Here are some websites with shared housing listings:

▶ Check shared housing listings by signing up for free on: www.lacartedescolocs.fr

▶ Find shared housing or a flatmate by signing up for a free basic account that allows you to access certain listings, or by paying for a premium account in order to be able to contact them all and to be contacted: www.appartager.com

Shared housing:

This is one of the cheapest housing options available that also enables you to have a bigger living space. However, you do have to be ready to share common areas on a daily basis (living room, kitchen, bathroom, etc.) as well as the rent and utilities.

Each member of the household must be listed in the rental agreement. If you join a pre-existing flatshare or houseshare, you will need to draft an amendment to the rental agreement.

There are two types of rental agreement for this type of housing :

- 1. A single rental agreement in which all the members of the household are listed, but be aware of the solidarity clause that binds the tenants together until the end of the contract! This clause stipulates that if you leave the house or flat before the term of the rental agreement, and the other tenants fail to pay all the rent due, you will be liable for the amount owing. The clause ceases to be effective 6 months after the end of your notice period.
- 2. An individual rental agreement (for each tenant), to which the solidarity clause does not apply; however, the landlord can decide who is allowed to join the household.

▶ Shared housing listings on www.leboncoin.fr www.lokaviz.fr and <https://www.campus-et-toits.com>.

Some steps to take before moving in

Before unpacking your things and settling into your new home, there are a few more steps you need to take.

Home insurance

As soon as you have found the right accommodation and before meeting with the landlord to receive the keys, you must take out home insurance. This is compulsory in order to protect you from various risks (fire, water damage, burglary, etc.). You can take out a policy with a mutual insurance company, bank or private insurer.

If you are part of a flatshare or houseshare, each tenant needs to take out home insurance.

Tip: choose a comprehensive policy that also includes liability insurance.

The guarantor

The guarantor undertakes to pay the rent and utilities and service charges on behalf of the tenant if the latter is unable to do so. This guarantor must be creditworthy, i.e. able to show that they have sufficient income and are capable of assuming this responsibility. This is required by most agencies and landlords.

If no-one can be a guarantor for you, you can apply online for the Visale guarantee, which is a free rental security deposit.

See the Visale guarantee table on p15

If you do not meet the eligibility criteria for one of these guarantees, you can contact a bank or ask your landlord whether they will agree to let you pay several months' rent up front.

French Government creating a centralized webpage providing information to students searching for housing

All the tools to find accommodation, a guarantor, helpful websites, procedures, and financial assistance to help you secure housing:

<https://www.etudiant.gouv.fr/en/accommodation-193>

The security deposit

You will then have to pay a security deposit that is usually the equivalent of a month's rent excluding utilities and service charges for unfurnished accommodation, and two months for furnished accommodation. It will be returned to you when you move out, but may be deducted from in the event of any damage to the accommodation.

L'AVANCE LOCA-PASS® provided by Action Logement, can accompany you to pay this security deposit. See the housing benefits table on p12

The rental agreement

You can now sign your rental agreement (or «lease»), of which each party gets a copy (landlord, tenant, guarantor). It contains all the information about the accommodation you are going to be living in (duration of the rental agreement, contact information of the landlord and the tenant, accommodation type and description, price of rent, and utilities and service charges). It also lists the landlord and tenant's rights and obligations.

Incoming inventory

The day you get the keys to your new home, you will carry out an incoming inventory with the landlord. This is a full and very precise description of the accommodation, drawn up in duplicate.

Be sure to describe any visible damage, even if it is very minor, and keep a copy of this document until the day you move out. On this day, if the exit inventory matches the incoming inventory, your security deposit will be returned to you within one month. If the exit inventory does not match the incoming inventory, the landlord has two months to return your security deposit and the expenses to cover the damage will be deducted. After the incoming inventory, you can finally get the keys to your new home!

Signing up with providers

As soon as you move in, you will need to open an account in your own name with utility companies (electricity or gas, as the case may be) and an internet provider. Generally speaking, if you are living in a student residence or renting a private room in an individual's home, these expenses will take the form of a flat rate and are usually included in the rent.

Housing benefits provided by the Caf

Whether you are French or an international student, you can apply for housing benefits provided by the Caf when renting accommodation. This is a monthly payment.

Contact your city council to find out what local services are available (e.g. Instal'Toit, set up by the Toulouse city council)

See the housing benefits table on p12

Work-study trainees / apprentices

Action Logement supports young people under 30, who are in apprenticeship programs within non-agricultural private sector companies, through the MOBILI-JEUNE® assistance program. This program covers a portion of their rent, up to €100 per month. In order to benefit from this, certain income requirements must be met. Assistance subject to conditions, available within the limits of the maximum amount set by current regulations, and granted subject to the approval of Action Logement Services.

MOBILI-JEUNE® assistance is a registered trademark on behalf of Action Logement.

Submit your application online either 3 months before or up to 6 months after the start of your training programme: mobilijeune.actionlogement.fr

For more information on the other benefits offered by Action Logement, visit <https://alternant.actionlogement.fr/>

Furnishing: think second-hand!

In order to save money on furniture, there are various associations, student initiatives and organisations that will allow you to furnish your accommodation more cheaply, e.g. with recycled furniture.

Campus et toits

Campus & Toits is an association that offers shared housing for students and young people under the age of 30 (including those in civic service, working, apprenticeships, or professional training). Everything is done to facilitate access to housing for young individuals: affordable rent, individual lease, eligibility for housing assistance (APL), no guarantor required, simplified application process, and no agency fees. Some accommodations are already equipped and furnished. The best part: at Campus & Toits, roommates can choose each other, and meetings are organized among our tenants. Offers and availability can be found at:

Shared housing in Toulouse

For websites with shared housing listings, see 18

Shared housing with the KAPS solidarity project

AFEV Toulouse, the "association of students for the city foundation", offers places in so-called "KAPS", or "solidarity flatsharing projects".

Crous residence «Le petit Varèse» is a 3-minute walk from Université Toulouse - Jean Jaurès and 15 minutes from the city centre (Metro Line A, Mirail University station) .

> Rent between €235 and €254 including utilities and service charges
> 5 hours of citizen commitment per week

Living in a KAPS means being involved in an innovative project and in actions with residents and partners based on different themes (education, environment, culture, sport).

Interested? You can find more information on their website and request to be contacted!

Campus & toits

Campus & Toits is an association that offers shared housing for students and young people under the age of 30 (including those in civic service, working, apprenticeships, or professional training). Everything is done to facilitate access to housing for young individuals: affordable rent, individual lease, eligible for housing assistance (APL), no guarantor required, simplified application process, and no agency fees. Some accommodations are already equipped and furnished. The unique feature of Campus & Toits is that roommates can choose each other, and meetings are organized among our tenants.

Offers and availability can be found at: www.campus-et-toits.fr
